Program Agreement Form

As a Coastal Alabama Community College student, I understand the following:

- Textbooks and any required materials for the courses are the responsibility of the student.
- A grade of "D" or lower or withdrawal from a course will result in one term of ineligibility, can affect future financial aid status of students, and can affect high school credits and GPA.
- I must check my schedule each semester before the start of classes
- High school IEP/504 plans are not honored by postsecondary institutions.
- I am responsible for obtaining any necessary accommodations through the college ADA representative before classes begin each term.

It is the responsibility of the student to check their schedule each semester before the start date of classes for any errors regarding registration, charges, account holds, and personal contact information. Students who contact their career coach or dual enrollment staff after the start date of classes with account or course registration errors may not be able to remedy these errors.
